Docket No. 697-2010-Civil

Attorney for plaintiff Andrei Girenkov: Christine Chapla, Esq.

Attorney for defendant Mark Silvestri: Jeffrey S. Treat, Esq.

Decided by: Robert J. Conway, S.J.

Summary of the Case

This case came before the Court for final disposition following a non-jury trial held on June 24, 2011.

This case arose out of a Craigslist posting made by the defendant (“the Seller”) advertising a “seasonal property” that consisted of a lot at Indian Country Campsites. The ad caught the eye of the plaintiff (“the Buyer”), who contacted the Seller and engaged in various email and telephone conversations with the Seller regarding the lot.

The Buyer decided to purchase the lot, and in June of 2008 the parties entered into a written agreement of sale for this lot. The agreement contained a warranty that the Seller was not aware of any building code violations on the property. The agreement also contained an “as is” clause, which provided that the Seller made no warranties about the functionality of, inter alia, the property’s septic tank. Accompanying the agreement was a list of the restrictions and covenants for Indian Country Campsites, which requires any structure for continuous use to have complete sanitary facilities and conform to the Pennsylvania Sewage Facilities Act. The Seller also provided the Buyer with an Owner’s Affidavit, in which he verified that he was not aware of any problems with the issuance of a building permit for the property, as well as an Affidavit of Title in which he verified that he was not aware of any violations of any covenants, restrictions, etc. relating to the property. The Seller did not provide the Buyer with a Real Estate Disclosure Statement at any time prior to the sale. On June 17, 2008, the Seller provided an executed deed for the property to the Buyer.

Two years prior to the Seller’s transfer of the property to the Buyer, the Seller applied for an on-lot sewage disposal system. This request was denied because the system could not be located at least 100 feet away from neighboring wells. The Seller provided the Buyer with a copy of the denial letter at some time prior to the property transfer. The Seller also altered the tax records for the property to reflect its lack of a septic and a bathroom, which change was made a matter of public record. At the same time, the Seller made oral representations to the Buyer regarding the existence of a functioning septic system on the property.

The Buyer made substantial changes and improvements to the property. In June of 2010, the Buyer received a violation notice from the township Sewage Enforcement Officer, alleging that the Buyer was discharging sewage from the property into the ground from a drain pipe located on the property.

The Buyer filed a complaint against the Seller alleging counts for breach of contract, violation of the Real Estate Disclosure Law, fraud, and violation of the Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law (UTPCPL). The Court found in favor of the Seller with respect to each of these counts.

Presumably because the Court believed the Seller's testimony that the drain pipe had been "plugged" so as to comply with Indian Country Campsites covenants and regulations, the court focused its analysis on the Buyer's claims on the functionality of the septic system.

The Court first determined that the Buyer was unable to meet his burden in proving his breach of contract claim for two reasons: (1) the Court determined that the "as is" clause of the written agreement relieves the Seller of all liability since the Court did not find any evidence of fraud or mistake in connection with the clause, and (2) the Court determined that the parole evidence rule precluded the Buyer from introducing into evidence the Seller's alleged oral statements regarding the functionality and existence of a septic system on the property. With respect to this second reason, the Court determined that the as is clause superseded any prior oral statements made by the Seller because the as is clause specifically announced that the Seller was not making any warranties regarding the functionality of the septic tank.

The Court next determined that the Seller did not violate the Real Estate Disclosure Law. Section 7301 of this Law, found at 68 Pa.C.S.A. § 7301, requires any seller of real property to disclose to the buyer any material defects with the property by completing a property disclosure statement that satisfies the requirements of Section 7304 prior to the signing of an agreement of sale. This section specifically requires a seller to disclose material defects regarding water and sewage systems or service. The Court nonetheless relied upon 68 Pa.C.S.A. § 7314(1), which provides that a buyer shall not have a cause of action against a seller for material defects disclosed to the buyer prior to the signing of an agreement of sale. Thus, even though the Seller did not provide the Buyer with a property disclosure statement, the Court found that the Buyer did not have a cause of action against the Seller because the Court found that the Seller provided to the Buyer, prior to the execution of their written agreement of sale, a copy of the 2006 letter denying his application for an on-lot sewage system.

The Court found that the Seller's providing the denial letter to the Buyer prior to the execution of the agreement of sale also neutralized the Buyer's fraud claim, as the Court reasoned that the Buyer had notice of the non-functioning septic system prior to his signing the agreement of sale. The Court additionally noted that the only evidence that the Buyer attempted to introduce of fraud was his own testimony regarding the alleged oral statements of the Seller.

The Court also rejected the Buyer's claim under the UTPCPL, reasoning that only malfeasance may support a cause of action under the UTPCPL, and that because the Buyer could not meet his burden in proving a breach of contract, the Buyer could not prove misfeasance. The case cited by the Court for this proposition (Gordon v. Penn. Blue Shield, 548 A.2d 600, 604 (Pa. 1988)) provides that nonfeasance with respect to an insurance contract may not support a claim under the UTPCPL, and that misfeasance (the improper performance of a contractual obligation) is required. The Court does not specifically discuss how the Seller's production of the Affidavit of Title and his alleged oral representations to the Buyer relate to the Act's definition of "unfair or deceptive acts or practices," which definition includes the use of deceptive representations, and instead implies that in cases involving a written contract, it is necessary for the plaintiff to prove a breach of contract in order for the plaintiff to maintain a claim under the UTPCPL.

NOTICE OF WAYNE COUNTY TAX CLAIM BUREAU
2011 DELINQUENT TAX SALE

To the owners of properties in this notice and to all persons or taxing authorities having such liens, tax judgments or municipal claims against such properties.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act of 1947, P.L. 1868 and its amendments, known as the Real Estate Tax Sales Law, the following described properties will be offered by the Tax Claim Bureau of Wayne County, Pennsylvania, at public sale for delinquent taxes at the Court House of Wayne County, Pennsylvania, on Monday the 12TH of September 2011 at 1:00 p.m.

Prevailing Time, and continuing thereafter with adjournments and re-adjournments to such other days and time as may be announced at the sale or subsequently advertised.

The purpose of said sale is to dispose of properties against which delinquent taxes remain unpaid, the tax claims having become absolute, and the legal period of redemption expiring on June 30,2011. The terms of said sale shall be as follows: No sale of any property shall be made unless a bid equal to the final upset price is made.

The approximate upset price is hereinafter set out after the description of each property and includes all taxes, penalties, interest and costs, as recorded in the Tax Claim Bureau and the approximate cost of this sale pro-rated. The final upset price will be announced at the time of sale and will include the cost of recording deeds.

The purchaser of any property shall, as soon as the Township(s) is completed, pay the entire purchase price to the Bureau. In case said amount is not paid, the sale shall be void and the property put up again for sale.

Payment must be made in cash or by certified check. Commercial letters of Credit will be acceptable to validate checks (SUBJECT TO APPROVAL OF THE DIRECTOR.)

Any taxing districts having municipal claims against any property herein advertised, shall certify no later than August 31, 2011, the amount thereof to the Tax Claim Bureau, before sale in order to include the same in the final upset price.

The sale of any property herein advertised may, at the option of the Tax Claim Bureau be stayed if the owner, thereof, or any lien creditor of the owner, before the date of the sale, enter into an Agreement with the Tax Claim Bureau to pay the taxes in installments in the matter provided by the Act of Assembly, and Agreement entered into.

The Real Estate Tax Law provides: "There shall be no period of redemption after such sale and title to Lands sold at tax sales to be subject to liens, judgments and mortgages of record."

NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE TAX SALE BIDDERS

In accordance with act No. 133 P.L. 1368, No. 542, Prospective Purchasers at all Tax Sales are now required to certify to the Tax Claim Bureau as follows:

1. A successful Bidder Shall be required to provide certification to the Bureau that, within the Municipal Jurisdiction, such person is not delinquent in paying Real Estate Taxes owed to taxing bodies within Wayne County, and

2.A successful bidder shall be required to provide certification to the Bureau that, within the Municipal Jurisdiction, such person is not delinquent in paying Municipal Utility Bills owed to Municipalities within Wayne County.

3. Certification Forms are available in the Tax Claim Bureau. You must submit your Notarized Certification form at the time of registration for the sale.

It is strongly urged that prospective purchasers have examinations made of the title to any tracts in which they may be interested. Every reasonable effort has been made to keep these proceedings free from error. However, in every case, the property is offered for sale by the Tax

Claim Bureau without any guarantee or warranty whatever, either as to existence, correctness of ownership, size, boundaries, locations, structures or lack of structures upon the land, liens, title or any other matter or thing whatever. No adjustments will be made after the property is struck down. The Bureau reserves the right to void any sale prior to confirmation if the bureau discovers a defect with regard to said sale.

The properties offered for sale are herein after setout by township or taxing districts and the name first appearing in item is that of the last known owner or reputed owner.

The 2011 Accrued Taxes will be included in the final upset price, as well as deed recording fees and transfer tax.
