Summary of the Case

Before the Court was Defendants' Motion for Partial Judgment on the Pleadings as to Plaintiff's Amended Complaint, or Alternatively, Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's Amended Complaint in the equity case filed to No 27-1999. Also before the Court was Defendants' Motion for Partial Judgment on the Pleadings as to Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint, or Alternatively, Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint in the civil case filed to No. 208-1999. Both motions alleged the same that: 1) Plaintiff lacked standing to maintain a shareholder derivative action on behalf of Linde Enterprises, Inc, because Plaintiff was unable to fairly and adequately represent the interests of the other shareholders due to Plaintiff's conflict of interest in serving as a shareholder, officer, and/or director of one or more companies in direct competition with Linde Enterprises, Inc.; and 2) pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 1506(c), Plaintiff could not fairly and adequately represent the interests of the other shareholders of Linde Enterprises, Inc.

A motion for judgment on the pleadings will be granted "in cases which are so free from doubt that a trial would clearly be a fruitless exercise." Gallo v. J.C. Penney Cas.Ins. Co., 476 A.2d 1322, 1324 (Pa.Super. 1984) (quoting Karns v. Tony Vitale Fireworks Corp., 259 A.2d 687, 688 (1969)). A motion for judgment on the pleadings "is in the nature of a demurrer; all of the opposing party's well pleaded allegations are viewed as true but only those facts specifically admitted by him may be considered against him." Id. The court must only consider the complaint, answer and new matter. Kroiz v. Blumenfeld, 323 A.2d 339, 340 (Pa.Super. 1974).

In this case, Plaintiff and Defendant, along with Defendant's wife, are the only shareholders in Linde Enterprises, Inc., and at various times, all three were officers, directors and/or employees of Linde's. Plaintiff's Amended Complaint in the equity action alleged derivative claims for Breach of Fiduciary Duty, and for Unjust Enrichment. The claim in the civil action was for Civil Conspiracy. In the Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings, Defendants alleged that Plaintiff was unable to fairly and adequately represent Linde's other shareholders because in the Reply to Defendants' New Matter and Answer, Plaintiff specifically admitted that he is in direct competition with Linde Enterprises because of his ownership in Leeward Construction Company. However, the Court pointed out that Plaintiff previously disclosed to Defendant that he had acquired Leeward and there was no objection to the acquisition. Therefore, the Court determined that Defendant did not establish that Plaintiff's acquisition of a competing company hindered Plaintiff's ability to bring a shareholder derivative action.

Pa.R.C.P. 1506(c) requires that a plaintiff in a shareholder derivative action must "fairly and adequately represent the interests of the shareholders similarly situated...." When interpreting this requirement, the court must look at how well a plaintiff represents other similarly situated shareholders. Schupack v. Covelli, 512 F.Supp. 1310, 1312 (W.D.Pa. 1981). If the Court were to dismiss the action as requested by Defendant there would be no redress in a closely held corporation in which one shareholder is allegedly frozen out by the other shareholders. The Court recognized that:

...the need to provide a remedy in instances of corporate misconduct convince us that we cannot preclude the sole dissenting shareholder in a close corporation from enforcing the right of the corporation.... Rather, the rule was meant to abolish the sole shareholder's right to bring a derivative lawsuit without fairly and adequately representing 'similarly situated' shareholders. The rule does not place any minimum numerical limits on the number of shareholders who must be 'similarly situated.' It follows that if the plaintiff is the only shareholder 'similarly situated,' he is in compliance with both the letter and the purpose of the rule.

Based on the Eye Site case, this Court determined that Plaintiff was the only similarly situated shareholder, as the only other two shareholders were alleged to have oppressed the remaining shareholder. Further, Plaintiff was not similarly situated with Defendant shareholders because each Defendant shareholder allegedly misappropriated Linde Enterprises offices, equipment, materials, labor force and other resources without providing compensation or fair market value compensation to Linde's. Therefore, Plaintiff was entitled to bring a derivative shareholder claim, and Defendants' Motion for Partial Judgment as to Plaintiff's Amended Complaint and Second Amended Complaint in both cases were denied.
